STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SOP) FOR APPOINTMENT OF WHOLE TIME DIRECTORS (WTDS) IN PUBLIC SECTOR BANKS, PUBLIC SECTOR INSURANCE COMPANIES AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Any upcoming/ existing vacancy of WTDs in any of the institution under the Bureau's mandate is notified by Department of Financial Services (DFS) to the FSIB. The vacancy could be filled either by floating an open advertisement or through the promotion of the internal candidates as per the extant criteria of the Appointments Committee of Cabinet (ACC).

Recommendations for WTD positions where vacancies are filled by the promotion of internal candidates

1. The respective vacancy/ vacancies are notified by DFS to the Bureau along with the list of candidates who are eligible for the said vacancy. The list of candidates is then independently verified by the Bureau, to ensure that they fulfil the extant ACC criteria.

2. Willingness is sought from the candidates for the vacancy for which they are eligible.

3. The Bureau then collects the annual performance appraisal reports (APARs) of the eligible and willing candidates for the last five years.
4. A self-assessment questionnaire and a resume is collected from each candidate.
5. A self-declaration, related to the vigilance records, which is to be duly attested by the Competent Authority is also collected from each candidate.
6. The vigilance details of the candidates are also collected from the CVO of the respective organization.
7. The next steps in the selection process entail a Behavioural Assessment Round, which is conducted by an external agency hired by the Bureau for conducting behavioural assessments. As part of this process, the candidates undergo a psychometric assessment (via a ~60-minute Online Survey) followed by an 'In Person' interview, entailing one-to-one assessment with a behavioural and a functional expert.
8. The Bureau collects 360-Degree Feedback of candidates from Customers, Superiors, References, Peers & Subordinates.
9. The external HR agency provides a comprehensive competency assessment report for each candidate based on behavioural assessment and 360-degree feedback. However, the fresh assessment/ feedback is not conducted for candidates who have been assessed in the recent past.
10. The reports/ documents collected by the Bureau Secretariat are made available to the members of the FSIB before the interactions.
11. Thereafter the call letters are issued to the candidates and the interaction with the Bureau Members is conducted at the scheduled date and time.
12. Since the onset of the pandemic, most of the interactions are being held in online mode. Testing of video conferencing equipment is done with all the candidates before the interactions.

13. For the interactions, three panels are formed, with two members in each panel. Each panel consists of one Ex-officio member and one part-time member. The constitution of panel members is decided by the Chairman.

14. After the interactions of each of the panel with the candidates, the scores are awarded by all the three panels to each of the candidates. Taking into consideration the scores of all the panels along with the other extant ACC criteria, the final score is arrived at, on the basis of which the recommendations to the respective positions are made by the Bureau.

15. The recommendations made by the Bureau are published on the Bureau's website as well as its twitter handle.

Recommendations for WTD positions where vacancies are filled by open advertisement

1. The respective vacancy/ vacancies are notified by DFS to the Bureau.

2. The Bureau then invites online applications from eligible candidates for the respective positions. The advertisement for the same is published in major newspapers and also on the Bureau's website and its twitter handle.

3. Amongst other things, all applicants are required to furnish a self-assessment questionnaire and a resume. If an applicant is working in a public-sector organisation, they need to submit a No Objection Certificate (NOC) from their employer.

4. The applications are then scrutinized by the Bureau to determine the eligibility of the candidates for the said position as per the ACC criteria.

5. The candidates, whose candidature is not found in order, are advised by an email with the reasons for rejection.

6. A self-declaration, related to the vigilance records, is collected from all the eligible candidates.

7. The vigilance details of the candidates working in the Public Sector organisations are also collected from the CVO of the respective organization.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE

1. All expenses of the Bureau shall be incurred with the sanction of the Secretary only.
2. All major expenses shall be incurred with the consent of the FSIB or with permission of the Chairman.
3. For each financial year, the funds to be contributed by each of the three categories of financial service institutions (namely, PSBs, FIs and PSIs) towards meeting expenditure by FSIB shall be reckoned in proportion to the total number of their respective vacancies of WTDs and NECs at the beginning of the financial year. The contribution of an individual PSB or FI in the total contribution as reckoned for all PSBs or FIs, as the case may be, shall be in the ratio of the total income of the individual PSB or FI to the total income of all PSBs or FIs, as the case may be, for the financial year. Further, the contribution of an individual PSI in the total contribution as reckoned for all PSIs shall be in the ratio of its net premium earned to the total net premium earned by the individual PSI to all PSIs for the financial year.
4. FSIB shall assess its total fund requirement for a particular financial year and apportion it among PSBs, FIs and PSIs in the aforesaid manner and intimate the apportioned requirement to SBI in respect of PSBs, NABARD in respect of FIs, and LIC in respect of PSIs. SBI, NABARD and LIC shall remit the funds upfront to be contributed by PSBs, FIs and PSIs respectively, and collect the contributions from individual PSBs, FIs and PSIs subsequently, as the case may be.
5. The receipts and payments of the Bureau are routed through an account maintained at Reserve Bank of India.
